Introduction

Hi this is my story (lucian johnny and ian) about a boy named Rexan, who was 11 years old [redacted] and became the [redacted] and he sees his friends (11 years old) that [redacted] just before him and this story takes place in 1996 starting at his home in Seattle.

Chapter 1: skeletons and pizza

Rexan was hungry, so his friends (bob, dave, trev and jessie) rexan ask his mom “can we go to papa johns, me and my friends are hungry” his mom said “ok but be careful it's dark and there was heist happening near papa johns so be careful” they all went to the garage to get their bike and they went on the street, as they got there before the gas station closed, they wanted to get a quick gatorade, so he grabbed the coins in his pocket, and saw how much he had, so he got 5 gatorades and bought them and got 2 large pizzas they ate them at papa johns then he looked out at the wi d “ guys is that a Van?” rexan said they all looked up and jessie said “yeah that is a black van” trev said “but why is there one” bob always had a black backpack, he asked if they raided papa johns, he had a little robot, it had a oil slick tranquilizer and small flamethrower that used a lighter and some deodorant spray. When they went out they went back home as they looked at the gas station, the black van parked as they continued going home. And they went to sleep in Rexans bedroom.

Chapter 2:My dog

Rexan woke first but questioned what was that black van? He brushed his teeth and his dog woke up as he went to his backyard to play with his dog,Daniel (Daniel the dog, Not you Daniel) he was playing with him. he threw the ball, Daniel went straight for the ball. Trev, Bob, Jessie and dave woke up .Daniel went and ran to them and jumped on daves back “grunt” he said “yoooo guys you awake” Rexan said. They all went to the kitchen and then they all made breakfast

Get pugged

Bob made a tuna sandwich it looked good but everyone was disgusted. Rexan made his one of his favorite a grilled cheese he cut it into to two to give to dave and jessie, they just ate a egg salad sandwich, they were chilling but they were all thinking the same thing, what was that black van? So they finished their food and played some video games except rexan, he still had the feeling in his gut, so he said “ we should got to the gas station tonight again” they agreed. (10 hours later) They went to the gas station but before they knew it the place exploded

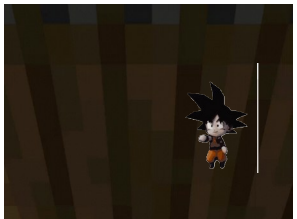
Chapter 3:death is here

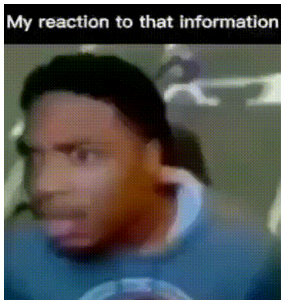
As he “woke up” he saw the gas station in flames..... he got up and saw skeletons. But in bobs backpack was some weapons just in case of emergency .Dave had pepper spray, Trev had a bat, Jessie had a lighter, bob had a small knife and Rexan had a revolver. But as rexan saw them he noticed that they were skeletons that each had the same hats and clothes but torn though, but he knew it was them and they were all looking at the same spot on his body, his heart (literally) there was knife in his chest yet he was not dead but then they saw it.....

The black van it was there just like his mom said the robbery, the black van . The gas station was the bank it wasn't revealed or people would’ve robbed the place ,rexan was half skeleton half human soon enough half zombie and half skeleton. He grabbed the knife from his chest, but no pain ,somehow just blood and he threw the black van so hard that his hand almost went through the metal then they heard screams and they saw it crash..... The driver is dead he was stabbed then it went dark.....

Chapter 4:Memories

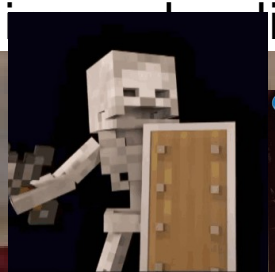
He woke up again but in a random place it looked like heaven but it wasn’t. There was a sign it said memory lane, he was confused, he was undead he didn't know what was happening, his heart was beating faster and faster ,all his exact memories were there, but something wasn't right, every single detail was there, even the ones his brain changed before he turned undead ,it was showing his memories, he walked then sped up and faster and faster…….



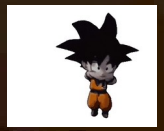


Chapter 5:The first war

He woke AGAIN (for the last time i promise) “RRRAAAAAAHHHHHHHHH!”he roared for no reason he got back up the place was burnt, no cops no firefighters but then he heard the sirens he dragged his friends into the forest. As he got in there he heard chatter over two cops talking about what the heck happened and the other said “ i heard there were skeletons moving” Rexan pulled out his revolver ”oh shoot” his revolver fell out his hand, he needed a way to silence them, but he was lucky, one of them were coming he looked at his hand it was (squeak) a knife the cop was comi id it... (bo breaking)



The other cop came, he grabbed his head. rexan then squeezed harder and harder slowly and his head got crushed..... He then took his friends to a grave. He found a weapon it was a shovel but also another weapon, it looked like the reaper’s scythe then he heard sirens again “not again, at least it’s like a video game” he raised the scythe (skeletons digging) “huh” Rexan said. Skeletons were rising from the ground including zombies he then pointed the reaper weapon at the cops in the horizon they ran towards the cops. (Cops POV: “sir i see something in the horizon, it looks oh Oh OH OH OH NO NO I'M RUNNIN” (boom) the skeletons broke the cars

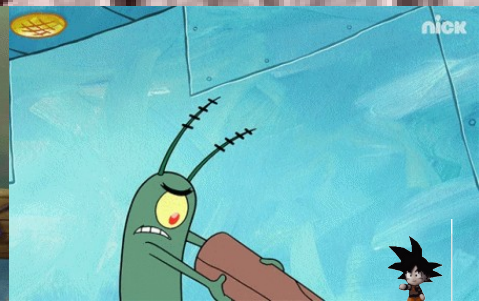


Chapter 6:invaders

5 days later’ (grunt) bob grunted. Bob got up he looked around “huh, where am I?” Rexan was eating a sandwich but he heard bobs grunting and snorting “AHH” jessie said “AHHHH”dave said then trev woke up “bruh” he said like it was another monday. Rexan got up and took his hand out and told them “took you guys long enough” as they got up they saw that they were all skeletons still but they also noticed that there were dead bodys “uhm excuse me what the frick” dave said. Rexan grabbed a bat, a bone bat with metal spikes “here trev better use this for the next wave then we’ll go get some tacos and here are your new weapons and armor made of steel tree roots i guess?” they were confused but then “put your weapons down NOW!” as a captain cop yelled into the mic, then the military had their helicopters surrounded them but then a dinosaur rose from the ground and roared

(a skeleton rex so basically a s-rex)

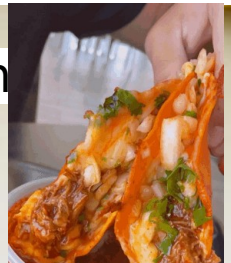
The s rex ran into the cars, then Rexan put down his sandwich and then jumped high and then a knife appeared and he grabbed it and stabbed the helis into the ground the heli crashed into some cars and then he took another bite of his sandwich, and bob dave jessie and trev were shocked but then a cop tried hitting them with his baton but trev used the bat to kill him, the cop died brutally because trev bashed his head with the bat, then more cops came. Bob used his small knife and then used Trev’s hand hand as a hammer ”nooo my hand” Trev said and then rexan had a idea “hehehe” ‘10 minutes later’ hey wanna get tacos now?

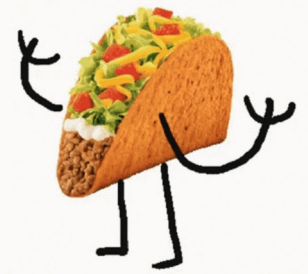


Chapter 7:Tacos and exploring

“Mmmmm these are good” Rexan said. The tacos were good, and then he said “ you broke your hand, and it gave me an idea, I'm gonna turn your hand into a hammer” he then explained that they need to go to the cave to collect more skeleton bones and get more weird metals and maybe he can make new armor for all of them and better weapons to fight off invaders and cops and more. They grabbed their weapons and then Rexan came out the blacksmith and had a big sword it used sparky thorn titanium, the scythes metal and he had a cape and armor, his flesh and skin was rotting so he covered that side in armor, and he could control the skeletons and zombies with the scythe. they went to the cave and got new metals like

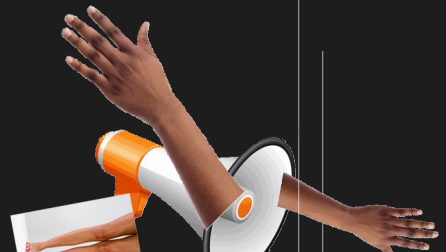
Dragon tooth n’ horton





Chapter 8: The king's death

After all of that they went farther but realized there was a hole in the ground and a sign that said “leaving nightmare realm and entering the kings throne so they went down and a ladder appeared in front of them, so then they explored “the kings lair” but then there was a big statue and a sign saying “this was the 7th king of nightmare realm”they saw it was like a big puffy cloud and then they saw the 6th king witch looked like a big skeleton with bloody organs, but they remembered they were just statutes so they wouldn't get hurt, but then they saw 5th witch was a zombie and the 4th witch was a big green blob and the 3rd witch was a big living flame and the 2nd witch was a decaying body and the 1st witch was an eyeball. But then they saw the 8th kings real living gross evil megaphone body moving to get a cup of blood but then it fell down and died with its last final words being……



The new king and the end?

Rexan... You... are the... new... king ,Rexan was confused, his friends were too but then he became bigger and bigger until he could fit in the throne, his flesh became cotton and..... He was a marionette! He was huge he lost his memories of good, but only left evil memories.He was not Rexan any more... He was the 9th king! His friends got taken from Rexan, but his friends killed the skele-servants. They struggled on how to bring Rexan back, so they tried ripping a hole in his foot without him noticing, and then they climbed up his cotton body and they found rexan, stuck in sort of a trance like state, so they tried to wake him up but that didn't work so they tried to remind him of his friends “remember that time when your dog tried to pee on me?” Bob said “remember when I made you that huge pile of pancakes for you?” Jessie said “remember when we went to the play?” Trev said “remember when we went to that waterpark?”Dave said. But then...

Chapter 10: forever

Rexan woke up but he had something on his arm, it was a glowing crack looking thing, and he was the king of the nightmare realm forever, and his children and his childrens childrens and on and on until the end of time. But for now they are running for their lives because by saving rexan they broke the fabric of the universe, but they saw a light but they did not make it... they were dancing now, in an abyss. But then they got flashbanged.....They were in a h.....
